Grafton High School wins $750.00 in statewide contest

CHARLESTON, WV – The West Virginia Alcohol Beverage Control Administration (WVABCA) is pleased to announce that Grafton High School is the fifth -place winner of the 11th annual NO School Spirits Public Service Announcement (PSA) contest. A total of 67 entries from nearly 500 students attending 37 middle schools and high schools across the state took part in the WVABCA’s underage alcohol prevention and education program. Students created and submitted videos that address the dangers of underage drinking and drinking and driving.

WVABCA Commissioner Fred Wooton said, “Participation continues to grow each year. Our contest would not be possible without our sponsors and funding from State Farm®, National Alcohol Beverage Control Association (NABCA), and the West Virginia Governor’s Highway Safety Program.”

An award event is scheduled at Grafton High School on April 26th at 12:45 p.m. In addition to winning $750.00 the students who submitted the PSA will each receive “Certificates of Recognition” from Governor Justice. Governor Justice said, “I am so proud of each and every student across West Virginia that participated in the contest. If these PSA’s save just one student from drinking and driving, then it’s worth it,” Gov. Justice added. “Unfortunately, I will not be able to celebrate with Grafton High School, but they should know that I recognize their hard work and I am proud of them for sharing this important message with their peers.”
