

The above photos are of one type of approved growler seal.

The seal requires the use of heat source to shrink and conform to bottle top. In this instance with a black wrapper, a light colored (e.g. white or silver) permanent marker would be used to legibly write on the shrink wrap after applying it to growler, with the date.